Peter Cooper, Fayssoux McLean — You might not have heard of either of these Spartanburg-rooted performers, but you're certainly acquainted with the A-list group of folks that appear on their respective debut albums. Cooper, a former Spartanburg Herald music critic now filling that same role at Nashville's Tennessean and various magazines, enlisted everyone from pedal steel player Lloyd Green to Nanci Griffith, Todd Snider and Jason Ringenberg on Mission Door, while McLean's Early includes former singing partner Emmylou Harris, Ricky Skaggs, David Ball and Cooper, who also produced the disc.
